

Symphony No. 101 in D Major, "Clock"

Haydn

Mvmt I : Melody A

Let's hur - ry with Hay - dn to wind the clock,
Wind the clock, Then we can hear all his mu - sic.

Mvmt I : Melody B

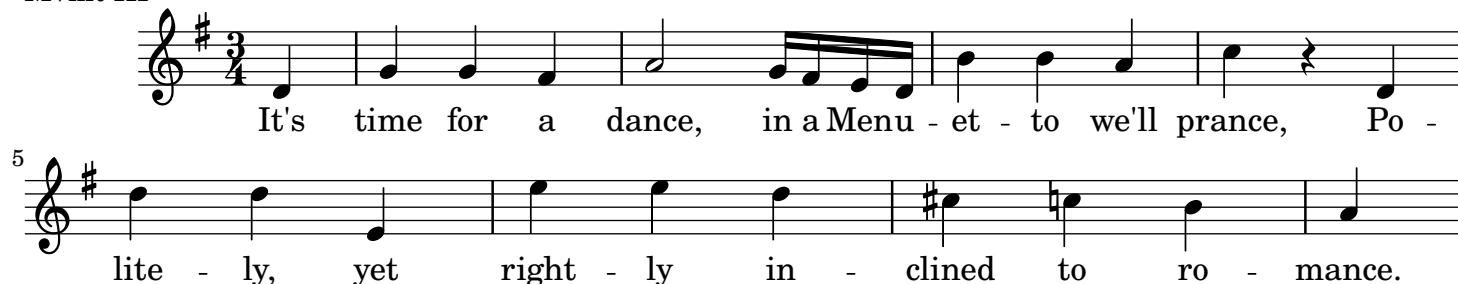

Keep winding and winding and wind-ing, Soon Haydn a tune will be find-ing.

Mvmt II

Tick - tock - tick - tock! Hear the tick - tock sound on high, The clock is tel - ling ev' - ry - one how time goes by.

Mvmt III

It's time for a dance, in a Menu - et - to we'll prance, Po - lite - ly, yet right - ly in - clined to ro - mance.

Mvmt III : Whistle

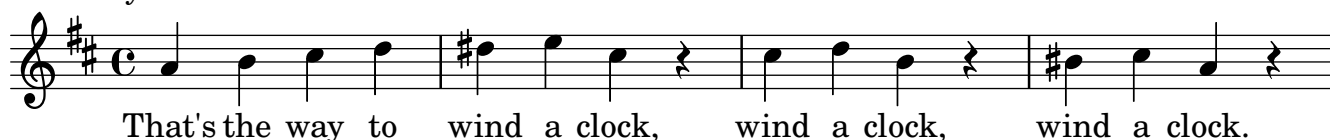

(whistling)

Mvmt IV : Melody A

Time goes on to a ver-y fast and hap - py beat,
Night or dawn, it nev-er will ad - mit de - feat.

Mvmt IV : Melody B

That's the way to wind a clock, wind a clock, wind a clock.

From Great Symphonies: How to recognize and remember them by Sigmund Spaeth